Vinitech 2009

- Chile is the fifth largest exporter of wine in the world. The wine industry hopes to reach $1.5 billion in exports by 2010.
- U.S. white oak is increasingly becoming the material of choice for South American vintners.

Vinitech América Latina is a bi-annual event which welcomes approximately 13,000 visitors. 150 exhibitors from more than ten countries attend the show, which is focused on solutions for the vine-growing, wine and spirits industries.
