

SIAL Shenzhen 2024

Shenzhen, China
September 2-4, 2024

South China is a key region for economic growth and international trade, with many key agriculture and food importers and distributors located in the area led by Guangdong province. Bordering Hong Kong, Shenzhen is the third most populous city in China after Shanghai and Beijing, and is part of the Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Greater Bay Area, a region of significant importance in China's development blueprint.

SIAL Shenzhen is one of the ten leading food and beverage exhibitions in the SIAL network. It is a new food and beverage exhibition under the SIAL network with a focus on the south China market. The show covers 21 categories of food and beverage products, and is expected to attract 1,200 exhibitors and over 50,000 professionals from around the world.
